Applicants have elected Gp. I drawn to the compounds of claims 21 and 26. The pharmaceutical method of use claims 27-29 will also be examined to the extent that have as an active ingredient a compound of claim 26 from which they depend.

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 27-29 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. Only treating cardiovascular disease is enabled.

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

The last active ingredient specified by the next to the last compound of p. 19 is not within the scope of claim 26 from which claim 29 ultimately depends.

Claims 26-28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Gamill et al, US Patent 5,703,575 cited by applicants. It discloses a genus of compounds which encompasses the instant 2-morpholino-1-(8-arylamino)alkyl-benzopyran-4-ones. It discloses that they are anti-atherosclerotic thus meeting the instant utility.

See claim1 where R8 is R9R10N(CH2)q and R9 is optionally substituted phenyl and R10 is H.
